Charlotte School of Law to Locate in Midtown

Charlotte School of Law (CharlotteLaw) has leased its first location, a three-story brick building located at 1211 East Morehead Street. They will occupy the building for the next two years while a permanent facility is designed and constructed for anticipated future growth.

CharlotteLaw is part of the InLaw consortium of independent community-based law schools working to establish student-centered, ABA credited facilities in underserved markets.

Charlotte-Top Data Center Market

A recent study by The Boyd Co., Inc., comparing annual data center operating costs, shows Charlotte ranks sixth among 35 major U.S. cities.

Top Data-Center Markets

Ranked by annual cost to operate a 75-employee data center in a new, 125,000-square foot building.

Legislative Trip to Raleigh

The Charlotte Chamber's annual Legislative Trip to Raleigh is scheduled for June 28-29, 2006. This two day trip will give Chamber members an opportunity to enhance their relationships with members of the General Assembly and Council of State as well as with each other. For more information, please contact Chamber lobbyist Stephanie Dorko at sdorko@charlottechamber.com or 704.378.1374. Register online through Monday, June 19 at www.charlottechamber.com/events.
